

Collieston Calendar 2008

PHOTOGRAPHIC COMPETITION RESULTS

A huge thank you to everyone who entered photos into this year's competition. The standard of photography just gets better every year so, after much arguing amongst the judges, the 2008 calendar will consist of the following photographers:

January	Craig Swan
February	Colin MacPherson
March	Ken Ingram
April	Susan Somner
May	Jack Page
June	Sarah Proudlock
July	Lesley Stewart
August	Ruth Leuchars
September	Sam Cheyney
October	Andy Clucas
November	Mike Rogers
December	Steve Rainey

We have secured full sponsorship of the calendar again and are currently getting everything ready for the printers. The 2008 calendar will be on sale at the Gala, as usual, at the end of July. If your photo was included in the calendar we will drop off your free copy as soon as we get them from the printers.

Thanks again to everyone who took the time and effort to send us photographs. Sorry if yours was not included this year, but I hope you understand. Please remember to keep taking photos of the Collieston area for next year's competition.
