

To all the FACEBOOKERS out there, Collieston and Slains is online and looking for you. We have set up a chat group for getting messages around the community about events, work parties etc. If you haven't signed up yet and wish to, please search for Collieston and Slains Chat in Facebook and request access.

For the non Facebookers, an EMAIL list is being set up containing the same information. If you wish to receive notices etc via email please send an email to colliestoninfo@yahoo.co.uk. This email distribution list will be used for village notices only.

Notices will continue to be put on the website (www.colliestononline.org) and the village noticeboards.
