And finally, many will be sorry to hear that Rae Walker passed away recently. A collection was made at her funeral and her family requested that it be donated to the village, so our fund has benefited from their generosity. Thank you so much.

£10,000

Our next event is the Sponsored Walk which will now take place on Saturday 24 September. This has been changed from the previously advertised date due to the tides. The walk will commence at Balmedie Beach at 2.30pm (please find your own way there), walk along the beach, through Newburgh, over the bridge, across the reserve and end up at Steve's boathouse for a well earned barbecue and bar. Sponsor form and map attached. Please photocopy the form if you require additional copies. You will need to come prepared for all weathers, have suitable footwear, and provide and carry your own refreshments for the walk.
