

songs for collieston

the now legendary 'village sunsets' and it's location in collieston have inspired several artists to write & record songs for collieston

www.myspace.com/villagesunsets

'collieston' jane gillman

after visiting, from her native texas, for the 07 belladrum festival fringe event, she was inspired to write this beautiful song.

'lang reel of collieston' the oxbow lake orchestra

written to provide music to the old fisher reel, traditionally danced through the village at weddings, with words from the late Dr. Lewis Mackie's doric poem, of the same name.

'collieston' samba sene

after providing one of the finest live sets seen in collieston, samba went on to record this 'good will' message specially for the good folk of collieston.

'all for gin'

scottie baxter (of deviltrain)

about the infamous story relating to the demise of the collieston smuggler phil kennedy, by the hands of the dreaded excise men.

available as free
downloads from

www.nessmp3.com/music/village\_sunsets